2.1. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Parties, these General Terms and the Schedules listed below (together referred to as these Conditions) govern all transactions between Vanquish Tech and the Customer. These Conditions supersede any other terms and conditions the Customer might attempt to introduce, whether through a purchase order or any other means, as well as those implied by law, customary trade practices, or previous interactions.

2.2. Schedule 1 shall apply Statement Of Works Contracts and form part of these Conditions.

2.3. Unless expressly stated otherwise:

- a. Each Quote remains valid for 30 days from the date of issuance, unless it pertains to a bid, or it's stipulated in our quotation offer.
- b. Vanquish Tech provides samples, specifications, descriptions, sales literature, and other documentation for illustrative purposes only; they do not constitute a binding part of the Contract except as approximate representations. Vanquish Tech reserves the right to correct any typographical, clerical, or other errors or omissions in this information without incurring liability.

2.4. An Order constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase Products, Services and/or Managed Services in accordance with these Conditions. The Order shall only be deemed to be accepted when Vanquish Tech issues written acceptance of the Order or takes other steps to fulfil the Order, at which point the Contract shall be formed.

2.5. If there is any conflict between the General Terms of these Conditions, a Schedule to these Conditions, a Contract, SOW and/or a EULA, the terms set out in the following documents shall prevail to the extent of that conflict in the order in which the documents appear in this list (highest priority first):

1. EULA.
2. Contract.
3. Schedule.
4. General Terms.

3. Fees and Payment

3.1. Subject to clauses 3.2 and 3.3, the Fees due from the Customer are as specified in the relevant Contract. All quoted Fees are exclusive of any applicable VAT or other taxes, as well as all costs and charges related to import and export duties. Unless agreed otherwise in writing, these will be solely the responsibility of the Customer.

3.2. Vanquish Tech reserves the right to raise the Fees before finalising a Contract or prior to delivery by notifying the Customer, should there be any increase in the cost of the Deliverables or in fulfilling its obligations. This can occur due to factors outside Vanquish Tech's control such as foreign exchange fluctuations, higher taxes and duties, and rising costs in labour, materials, logistics, and other areas, as detailed in:

3.2.1. External factors beyond Vanquish Tech's control.

3.2.2. As stipulated by clause 6 (Customer Obligations).

3.3. The Customer recognizes that Vanquish Tech may obtain Products and Services from international suppliers and might transact in currencies other than GBP/pounds sterling. Consequently, the Fees presented to the Customer in a Quote reflect the currency exchange rates, including any relevant commissions for currency conversion, effective on the date of the Quote (details available upon request). This arrangement holds unless the Parties agree differently in writing:

3.3.1. Fees listed in the Quote are for illustrative purposes only and may vary due to currency fluctuations.

3.3.2. The Fees payable by the Customer will be charged in GBP/pounds sterling and determined on the UK business day when the Contract is established, using the prevailing currency exchange rates on that day (including any applicable commissions for currency conversion). The calculated Fees will automatically become binding at that time.

3.4. Unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Parties, invoices will be raised and dated by Vanquish Tech on or after the date of dispatch of the Products, or on or after commencement of the Services and/or Managed Services. Where both Products and Services or Managed Services are supplied under the same Contract, a separate invoice may be raised for each.

3.5. The Customer shall pay each invoice in full (subject to any genuine dispute) by the Due Date.

3.6. Should any deductions or withholdings be required from the Fees for taxes, excises, customs, or similar charges by any jurisdiction outside the UK, the Customer agrees to pay Vanquish Tech additional amounts. This adjustment ensures that the net amount received by Vanquish Tech, after any such deductions or withholdings, is equivalent to what would have been received had no deductions or withholdings been made.

3.7. Where the Fees for a Contract are not invoiced at the same time (e.g., where the Fees for each year of a multi-year Contract are invoiced at the start of each respective year), the Customer acknowledges and agrees that, in entering into the Contract, it is committing to continue to make those payments over the entire period agreed in the Contract.

3.8. While the Customer is in default under a Contract (including for non-payment of undisputed Fees), then Vanquish Tech may withhold or suspend the supply of any Deliverables to the Customer (whether or not under that specific Contract).

3.9. Vanquish Tech may charge interest on any Fees not paid by the Due Date at a rate of four per cent (4%) per annum above the Bank of England base rate or if lower, four per cent (4%) per annum. Such interest shall accrue on a daily basis from the Due Date until actual payment of the overdue amount and accrued interest.

3.10. The Customer acknowledges that the Fees for some Services and Managed Services may be based on the Customer's actual usage, which is controlled by the Customer. The Customer therefore agrees in respect of such Services and Managed Services to pay such Fees as the Customer may incur as a result of its actual usage, without the requirement for any additional purchase order, and that such Fees may vary from any estimated Fees included in a Quote or Contract, based on information provided by the Customer and the Customer's anticipated usage.

3.11. Vanquish Tech may accelerate the issue of an invoice for any Fees which have yet to be invoiced under a Contract, if:

3.11.1. Vanquish Tech serves a notice of termination of a Contract other than for convenience.

3.11.2. there is (in the reasonable opinion of Vanquish Tech) a material adverse change in the creditworthiness of the Customer.

3.11.3 The customer fails to pay any undisputed Fees which are due and payable.

3.12. If the Customer, acting in good faith, disputes any portion of an invoice, the Customer must submit a written claim for the disputed amount no later than 7 calendar days after delivery of the relevant invoice, and shall at all times remain liable for the payment of all undisputed amounts. Where the Customer's level of usage of the Deliverables is in dispute, Vanquish Tech's records of such usage shall be presumed to be accurate unless proven otherwise by an independent expert jointly appointed by both Parties.

3.13. The Customer waives the right to dispute any Fees not disputed within 30 calendar days of receipt of the relevant invoice (other than in relation to Fees invoiced in advance).

3.14. All amounts due under a Contract shall be paid in full without any set-off, counterclaim, deduction or withholding (other than any deduction or withholding of tax as required by law).

3.15. On expiry or termination of a Contract for any reason, any Fees incurred but unpaid shall become immediately due and payable and shall represent a debt due from the Customer to Vanquish Tech.

4. Provisions for Products

Any increase in Fees for Continuing Services shall be applied no more than once per year at or around each anniversary of the commencement of those Services and shall not exceed the increase in the UK Retail Price Index or Consumer Price Index (whichever is lower) calculated over the preceding 12 months unless Vanquish Tech can demonstrate that its costs in providing such Service have increased by a sum exceeding that figure. Vanquish Tech shall notify the Customer in writing (a) at least 60 days in advance of any increase in the Fees for the Services, or (b) if Vanquish Tech is notified of such increase less than 60 days in advance of it becoming effective, as soon as is reasonably practicable thereafter.

5.2. The Customer acknowledges that fees charged by the upstream supplier of certain Managed Services will vary from time to time during the Term and Vanquish Tech may vary the Fees to reflect such changes in upstream fees. Vanquish Tech will use reasonable endeavours to provide reasonable notice of such variations.

5.3. When the Customer first orders a Managed Service not previously supplied, or it is agreed by the Parties as being either an addition or change to an existing Managed Service being supplied, a non-recurring charge for installation of additional network infrastructure, cabling, electronics or other materials or consultancy may be specified as part of the Fees. Nonrecurring Fees are payable by the Customer after delivery of the relevant Managed Service and will be billed in arrears. If the Customer fails to pay such non-recurring Fees within 30 calendar days following Vanquish Tech's invoice for such non-recurring Fees, then:

5.3.1. such failure to pay shall be an Excused Outage for the purposes of provisioning and/or installation of the Managed Services.

5.3.2. Vanquish Tech may issue a revised Contract Start Date and/or Activation Date.

5.3.3. Vanquish Tech may suspend installation of the Managed Service until payment of such nonrecurring Fees plus any overdue payment interest that may have accrued in accordance with clause 3.9.

11. Non-Solicitation

11.1. The Parties agree that during the period of a Contract and for a period of six (6) months after its termination or expiry, unless such action is a result of a public recruitment process which is not specifically targeted at any of the staff at the other Party, neither Party shall directly or indirectly solicit or entice away or employ or engage directly or indirectly (without the other Party's prior written agreement, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) or make any offer of employment or engagement to (or attempt to solicit or entice away, or employ or engage or make an offer to) any of the other Party's officers, employees or workers, including those of 13.3. The other Party repeatedly breaches the Contract in a manner that reasonably indicates an unwillingness or inability to fulfil its contractual obligations.

13.7.3. If the Customer fails to take delivery of or collect the Products as agreed, or does not provide Vanquish Tech with adequate delivery instructions at the scheduled time (except in cases beyond the Customer's reasonable control or due to Vanquish Tech's fault), Vanquish Tech may, at its discretion:

27.4. Store the Products until they are delivered and charge the Customer for reasonable storage costs, including insurance.

27.5. Sell the Products at the best available price, charging the Customer for any difference between the sale price and the Fees under the Contract.

Once this preparatory work is completed, Vanquish Tech will issue a Supplementary Work Order to the Customer, providing further details on how the Managed Services will be delivered. The Customer may request reasonable modifications to the Supplementary Work Order and Vanquish Tech will try to incorporate these changes within the existing scope and Fees outlined in the original Statement of Work. If accommodating these changes within the original scope isn't feasible, both Vanquish Tech and the Customer will negotiate in good faith to agree on any necessary adjustments to the Managed Services and associated Fees. The Customer can accept the Supplementary Work Order by providing written confirmation, sending an email, or by simply requesting that Vanquish Tech proceed with the work. If no written rejection is received, the Supplementary Work Order will be considered accepted 7 days after it is sent. Once accepted, the Supplementary Work Order becomes an official part of the original Work Order and is included within the Managed Services Contract.

Therefore, unless explicitly agreed otherwise in the Work Order, the Customer must not use the Managed Services for such purposes.

2.6. Substitution of Managed Services

If a Managed Service is no longer readily available or is in short supply at the time of delivery, Vanquish Tech may substitute an alternative product or service of equal or better performance and functionality, at no additional cost to the Customer.

2.10. Vanquish Tech reserves the right to modify and increase the Fees and implementation timescale associated with any Managed Service if there is any material revision to Customer Site, Customer Site Equipment, or any other infrastructure of the Customer, which Vanquish Tech determines, in its sole discretion, impacts its performance. Any resulting delay shall not be considered a breach of the Contract by Vanquish Tech.

3. Disaster Recovery and Customer Data

3.1. The Customer acknowledges that risks such as data loss are inherent in using services like the Managed Services. Vanquish Tech can provide backup and restore services as part of the Managed Services, where agreed, but does not offer full business continuity planning or execution services. The Customer is responsible for their own business continuity planning and Vanquish Tech's backup services are not a substitute. If backup and restore services are not included, Vanquish Tech will not be liable for any loss or damage to Customer Data. If included, Vanquish Tech will perform them in line with the Work Order, Service Level, and Good Industry Practice.

4.2. The Customer shall license or procure a license for the use of any software, programs and/or applications used by the Customer and not supplied by Vanquish Tech (including the Customer's operating environment). These may or may not be indirectly related to the Managed Services.

5. Term and Renewal

5.1. The Managed Services Contract will continue for the Initial Term and will thereafter automatically renew for successive Renewal Terms unless:
